Small remembered the few noble people who had helped. The section actually about the Nazi take over, the concentration camps, etc is as devastating as you would expect, but is the smallest part of the book. IvanA.MarkinWyoming. When would he have lost the will to build a life or grown too weary to find the strength to learn a new language and a new trade? Amazingly, their living room was filled with others who had sought their help. The very least I can do is read their experiences and share what burden I . It must have been very hard for Martin to relive all those awful experiences. A Deng.
