Of course, he remembers a key piece of information from a book review he skimmed in a newspaper 5 years ago, cracks the actual book for the first time and has solved a mystery in about ten minutes of research, because he's Sir Adam Sinclair, Insufferable Twat. I own the series, so am re-reading to determine whether to keep or not probably not at this point but am in a way fascinated to see how many tropes or cliches are added to the stories
