Media Audio edition Economist Films Podcasts. Cargo Ship Spotting 2. Beyond the misogyny, I doubt de Botton's ever had a "real job" in his life, and his quest to learn more about the world of work seems like a way for him to look down on all of us working drones.

So I put it. Now that the bust end of the boom-bust cycle has arrived, leisure is

Let me share some sights and reflections on the world of work.

Reuse this content About The Economist. Drawing on this vast body of work, in Happy Derren Brown explores changing concepts of happiness - from the surprisingly modern wisdom of the Stoics and Epicureans in classical times right up until today, when the self-help industry has attempted to claim happiness as its .

Perhaps his ideas are old hat to professional philosophers. Across the millennia, philosophers have thought long and hard about happiness.
