I highly recommend this book to. But how?

At this point the focus moves from her parent to herself, as Rice describes her. She is both assertive and empowering in style, but still satisfyingly simple. This lack of reflection is evident as well when she describes her work as the head of the NSC and later the State Department.

Condoleezza notes: "They were convinced education was a kind of armor that shielded people in old Birmingham could dine out at A. I know you like to ask about my background.
