Gratefully yours. You can enjoy a minute performance by the Danube Chamber Orchestra which celebrates this special day with timeless classical pieces by Mozart, Liszt or Gershwin. The illustrations are beautiful! At the stroke of midnight, she wanted everything. They learned that Nian was afraid of red colored things, noise and fire. More specifically, they guard against demons who wander around the human world at night looking for trouble. So think about Nian the next time you see red paper decorations at Chinese New Year. They were very big slippers, and her mother had used them till then, so big were they. What's hot.
