Mar 22, Kristin Traina rated it really liked it Shelves: spanishscience-literature-and-poetryece The illustrations are absolutely fantastic.

I liked this book because it was written in English with a little Spanish. Yes, Younger students could draw pictures of words, and older students can match the Spanish word to the English word.

Grade: 1st- plants parts and needs, 2nd- plant life cycle, 4th and 5th- Fables. In the classroom we would plant a bean and a chile plant then compare them later on after growth to allow the children to see what they are in real life.

Book description. With each tear, he begins to shrink and shrink until he is tiny. Polette portrays his Mexican American characters including the giant stereotypically: . Write a Review.
