Colorado Springs: WaterBrook. Indeed, we do not merely wish to hear about miracles, we want to participate in them to encounter God along the way. Worthington Jr. What would it mean for Christian counseling and pastoral care to take seriously? Otherwise, the scientific psychology risks seriously distorting human life as happened in the heyday of behaviorism. One of the more troubling truths of the way of Christ is the necessity of suffering how suffering often provides the necessary motivation to know God as deeply as possible. Yet a changed heart should also influence changed behavior; the growing Christian must look more and more like Christ. Both the one who makes people holy and those who are made holy are of the same family. You can pay for your order in a store or even use an international credit card.
