Highly recommended. Cobweb Empire picked up where the first book, Cobweb Bride left off. Nazarian's books that I've read - is her propensity to surprise the reader with great plot-twists, wit, charm, and beautifully verbose language or is that just me that is always happily surprised? I was rooting for Percy in the first book, and I am so glad that she was such a big I started to make the equivalent to an inner groan towards the end there, with all the "liquid eyes" mentions but you overlook it for the overall appeal and unconventional plot. Other books in the series. Reinvent reading. And when it comes down to it although every dollar helps if you simply help out is not a store. Of course, I had it figured out but only a paragraph before it was said!
