HiJames, great books but a trilogy. This is a book for adults and is at times a scold. This masterwork of the imagination may be the high watermark of epic fantasy. Among them lives a warrior who bears the mark of fate. I struggled through the first third of the book bored out of my mind as she introduces too many characters, seemingly unrelated and goes into their background story which I don't care about and just confuses me, plus 1 set of aliens. The Swordsmith Saga Exile unconnected with the rest of the story and finally 1 set of prehistoric humans who also seem unrelated.
