Not putting yourself out. I am 35 and have just about thrown in the towel on ever finding love. Truth is sometimes difficult to accept.

I thought about the ways in which I had been wonderful, and terrible, and sometimes I am in therapy because life has happened and I am woman enough to own my own stuff. I'm the one stood waiting for her friends only to find out they have left with the guy I was bypassed by. I feel the same way. I read their accounts online and it just makes me sad—how much sadness and empty bright diamond on our social media. Am I pretty enough?
