The same with physical pain. What was it but love—that He should save us—and not the fallen angels? But besides meditating upon the promises, seek in thy soul to receive them as being the very words of God. You can just be with the breathing. When you are learning how to drive, you think about everything, but after awhile, you just turn the turn signal and this thing and that thing—it's all second nature. I made a lot of money in my days.
