They all wanted their circumstances changed so that they could be happy... but Jesus did not fix their circum-stances or set up an earthly kingdom... still He said that they could be happy if and only if they let the kingdom of Christ rule in their hearts. Trusting scripture has never required that it be read simplistically. The child believes everything should be fair; that everyone should have what they want and need, that there should be no pain and sadness.

You are masters, co-creating this period of rising frequencies and higher dimensions. Yet many still believe that real creativity is selectively passed out at birth to the Bachs, the Matisse's, the Michael Jacksons of the world, and we are not among. Here Jesus reminds us that we will not have fullness of joy unless we abide in Him and that involves keeping His commands and putting our full trust and confidence in Him.
