I read this when it was new and it is one of my favorite books. Post was not sent - check your email addresses! This woman sheathed my limbs in blue velvet. The language is so sumptuous, though, and the impulse to freedom so passionate. I was innocent of all effort; I was blank as a page. A dark jewel. Different species! She attended Catholic convent schools in Dublin, apart from one year in New York. Fairy tales are nothing new, not even gender-bent ones, so it takes a bit more to impress me. The magic in the story is sort of made natural and earthy instead of as fantastical.
