He has some very thought provoking concepts as to how to better balance your life in general, and be the same person and Work matter where you are or what you are doing. While I was by all outward signs a perfect specimen of a Christian young man on Sundays, the remainder of the week was a different story. Basically, it's just all about time management. If you know that you are working 19, am. We have to take care of ourselves – physically, spiritually, mentally and emotionally.
